

Ramp Disclaimer

Stagetruck Ltd accepts no liability for any injury, howsoever caused as a result of using the trailer-loading ramp for any other purpose; Stagetruck Ltd's insurance is not applicable in this instance.

The tour management must recognise that, in the event of damage to the ramp being used, they will be liable for all costs involved in replacing the ramp, either during or after the completion of the tour, normally, damage is non repairable as any repair affects structural strength and invalidates the manufacturers warranty.

See website www.raalloy.co.uk

The management of the tour fully accept that if the loading or unloading of trucks is hampered in anyway as a result of damage, the tour accepts full responsibility for this.
